Exams = 70%
Written Assignments = 20%
Class participation, preparation, etc. = 10%
= _____
= 100%

The acceptance of late assignments and the opportunity to make up missed tests are privileges that may or may not be granted by the instructor. If these are allowed (with documented evidence of a sound reason for lateness), a student may submit a maximum of one late assignment and/or take one make-up test.

Students found guilty of committing an act of academic misconduct at any level of their class work/communication (including, but not limited to, homework assignments, journals, drafts of or final written assignments, and classroom or online discussions) will receive a sanction. All students suspected of academic misconduct will be referred to the Chief Instructional Officer or her designee. See Academic Conduct, below, as well as section III.C of the Student Code for Spartanburg Community College

Because instructors in the Humanities & Languages Department encourage students to write several drafts of their assignments before presenting a final draft, and because they maintain high expectations of their students' adherence to standards, students should not assume that late or inferior work is acceptable. The acceptance of late assignments (with documented evidence of a sound reason for lateness) and the opportunity to rewrite papers are privileges that may or may not be granted by the instructor; if the instructor does grant such privileges, only one late assignment and one rewrite are allowed per semester. The administration of make-up tests is also at the instructor's discretion. If these are allowed, a student may make up a maximum of one missed test per semester in this course.

CONFIDENTIALITY:

All students' e-mail addresses may be available to other students in the class. Although some assignments in an online course may encourage or require peer communication, the instructor will make every effort to protect the confidentiality of any personal communication (for example, grades). Instructors maintain attendance records. However, it is the student’s responsibility to withdraw from a course. A student who stops attending the online class and fails to initiate a withdrawal will remain on the class roster. For every assignment, test or exam not completed while still enrolled in the course the student will receive a grade of zero and the final course grade will be calculated accordingly.
