SCC EVANS ACADEMIC CENTER, SPARTANBURG, S.C.

The Historic Evans Building

Originally known as the Evans Building, this historic 1920's structure served as the center of Spartanburg's educational system for more than 50 years as the Frank Evans High School, Spartanburg High School and Evans Junior High School, before being acquired by Spartanburg County. Now the Evans Academic Center (EAC) once again serves as an educational hub for those who live and work in downtown Spartanburg.

SCC has renovated, restored and revitalized the 104,000-square-foot building to its original 1920's grandeur with ornamental stone work, gothic-style windows and period light pendants, among other unique features. The building also includes a 5,679-square-foot auditorium and a 7,254-square-foot gymnasium which are virtually unchanged since their construction. In addition, the EAC is listed on the National Register of Historic Sites and also meets LEED Silver Certification and ADA requirements.

Continuing Education

The Evans Academic Center also offers non-credit training and professional development classes through SCC's Corporate & Community Education Division. Visit www.sccsc.edu/cce for more information.

Clementia's Corner Food Pantry

Food and housing insecurities and homelessness are concerns not just in big cities, but in our own Spartanburg community as well. Thanks to a grant provided by the United Way of the Piedmont, the SCC Downtown Campus has an Americorps volunteer on-site who manages Clementia's Corner, a pantry for students, faculty and staff in need. Located at the Evans Academic Center in room 140, anyone with a current SCC ID card can pick up non-perishable food items, household items and toiletries. SCC will periodically host drives to gather items and student volunteers are welcome to help at the pantry. For more information, call (864) 592-4060 or email sccpantryresource@gmail.com.
